JACK LONDON'S FAMOUS SHORTHORN CATTLE ON EXHIBITION AT SHOW

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 19.—The famous Jack London herd of Shorthorn cattle from the late author's Glen Ellen ranch, is in Portland this week on exhibition at the cattle, horse, sheep and hog show there.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Christine Edlin had a permit to keep a cow—just one.

Along came a "cow stork" and left a calf. The calf bawled and the neighbors objected.

They brought Mrs. Edlin before the board of health today for keeping two cows on one permit. Mrs. Edlin argued the calf didn't count, that it had been thrust upon her and besides she had sold it.

The board of health ruled that a calf is not a cow and Mrs. Edlin had violated no law. But so enraged was one of the complainants that she had to be restrained until Mrs. Edlin departed.

Milton T. Clark, superintendent of public buildings, was back at the city hall today after a thrilling duck hunt to Colusa county. Here's what he said happened:

With his brother-in-law and family they started out in an automobile. The automobile stalled on the railroad track and refused to budge. So the passengers did—just before an oncoming train hit the machine and demolished it. They procured another car and continued the hunt.

The party was well repaid. One goose was the reward.

CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 19.—Twenty thousand soldiers, clad in olive drab of the American army, marching under the Stars and Stripes and singing:

Aux Armes, citoyens!
Formes vos, batallons!
Marchons, marchons!
Qu'un sang impur
Abreuve nos sillons.

The chorus of the national song of our sister republic—La Marseillaise.

That's the dream of J. Festyn Davies, musical director of Camp Lewis. He pictures an entire American division singing the inspiring French song, marching through the streets of Paris and at present he is busy training Americans here to sing it.

"Nothing could inspire the war-worn French people more than this," Davies declared today. "But more than that—it would have an important effect on the morale of our own troops. La Marseillaise is one of the most inspiring songs of the world."

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 19.—Counties that paid in premiums for compensation insurance for elective county officers contrary to law will be unable to secure a return from the state compensation insurance fund, according to C. W. Fellows, manager of the fund.

Fellows made this announcement in reply to L. P. Williams, auditor of Sacramento county, who attempted to secure the return of $1973.76 paid in premiums.

He declared that the state fund is still liable for injuries to elective officers prior to August 27, the date the supreme court ruled that state, counties and municipalities had no legal right to pay premiums on compensation insurance for elective officers.

A Hooverized dinner will take the place of the usual convention dinner at the fiftieth annual gathering of the California Fruit Growers' association to be held here November 21 to 23.

The banquet had been planned but at the request of G. H. Hecke, state commissioner of horticulture, it was changed to a spread more in keeping with the times. The dinner will be meatless and wheatless. Fish and fowl will take the place of meat courses and rice rills and barley bread will be substituted for wheat bread.

Cake to be served with the desert will be oatmeal and will have no icing, thus making a saving in sugar.

Inspectors to be named by the state cattle protection board to detect the stealing of hides and cattle will have no right to search premises under suspicion without the consent of the owners, Attorney-General Webb has ruled in an opinion to the cattle board.

The only condition under which the inspectors may search private property is when armed with a search warrant, says Webb.

The state civil service commission has called examinations to fill the following state positions:

Superintendent and assistant superintendent, state bureau of criminal identification and investigation, December 1. Last day for filing applications November 26. Salary of superintendent $2400 per year; salary of assistant superintendent $1800 per year.

Supervisor, matron and attendant, Mendocino state hospital. The last day for filing applications is November 24. Salary of supervisor and matron $84 per month and maintenance; attendant (men and women) $40 and $55 a month and maintenance.

EUREKA, Nov. 19. — America's entry into the European war has created a demand for German literature.

That's the announcement of Librarian H. A. Kendall of the public library here, based on a study of data showing what books are in the greatest demand from the library shelves. This shows that the war has been a boon to Germany's "best sellers."

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Tuesday. Westerly winds.

A KING'S CORPORAL

NEPHEW OF ANDREW McINTYRE DECORATED BY KING GEORGE OF ENGLAND

A nephew of Mr. Andrew McIntyre, 435 South Isabel street, has returned to his old home in Richmond, Canada, from the Front, after having won much distinction and many honors while in active service. Following is an account published in a Canadian paper:

One of the recent arrivals from the blood-stained fields of Flanders is a Richmond boy who has covered himself with glory and comes back with honors conferred by royalty.

Perley McIntyre, a veteran of the South African war, was in the west when the call came for men and was among the first to land in France. Very early in the campaign he was awarded a Russian decoration for bravery. A rather amusing incident occurred in connection with the decoration. When told he had three days leave to go to London to receive his medal he said he was too busy to leave just at that time. He was afterwards wounded and while convalescing in a London hospital he was sent for by the King and went to Windsor Castle. While pinning the medal the King smilingly said ,"You are the man who was too busy to leave France to be decorated." In addition to this he was made a King's corporal, a very unique honor and means he cannot be reduced in rank unless by an order signed personally by the King. It also gives him the right on ceremonial parades to ride second to the commanding officer.

He has been appointed an instructor in Engineer's Training Depot, Quebec. He was married while in England and his wife is with him in Richmond.

BUSY BUNCH OF LADIES

The Glendale W. C. T. U. held a very enjoyable and instructive meeting last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Keim, 1442 West Second street. Mrs. John Cotton of 1117 San Rafael street delighted the members and friends present with two solos, "Lullaby," by Carrie Jacobs Bond, and "Mother McCree." Interesting reports were given of the Signal Corps reception by Mesdames Smart, Warner, Pettit, Palmer, Morton and Mottern. A note of appreciation was given to Mr. Samuel Parker for kind expressions in the Evening News of a recent date of the work of the W. C. T. U. in all its various lines. The "drive" is on for a larger patriotic enlistment in the Glendale Union. Anyone who will give their support and help will be gladly received.

The Southern California Women's Christian Temperance Union have pledged themselves to make 350 sweaters to measurement for the enlisted Signal Corps Reserves. Commander Allen said this would be the most useful as well as appreciated Yuletide gift they could receive. Each union will have a share in this work of love and Christmas cheer.

The young people's branch of the W. C. T. U. at their meeting last Thursday gave a dollar for another comfort kit and will make 18 more arm bandages, having already made 36, and given two comfort kits previously and $5 toward a hospital electric fan. Plans were made for a delightful get-together social in the near future.

SALYER WAKING UP

It is reported that C A. Salyer is taking hold of the piano business with his father, anyhow Salyer is waking. The News calls attention to the last page in this issue in which are quoted some startling piano bargains.

When our people can buy at home to advantage they ought to do so. This seems to be the best chance ever offered here on pianos.

MARINES GO EAST

HOWARD BRADLEY AND JOE HARTLEY OFF FOR QUANTICO, VIRGINIA

Howard H. Bradley, 1617 Oak street, and Joe M. Hartley, 1649 Oak street, of the 36th Co., U. S. Marines, who have been stationed at San Diego the past six months, passed through Los Angeles Saturday night with their company and others of the marine corps, in all twelve sleepers, for Quantico, Virginia, where they will join the 9th regiment.

The train was met by friends and relatives and greetings and goodbys said. The train left the Santa Fe depot at 11:35 with taps sounded, which could be heard from a distance as the train passed from sight.

GLENDALE BOY HERO IN FRANCE

Word has reached here of the tragic and heroic death at the Front of a former Glendale boy, Harvey Warwick, who attended the Glendale Union high school and whose family lived on Milford street until leaving here about four years ago. He had, according to the London "Times," left Montreal early in the summer with the Canadian regulars. At the famous battle of Vimy Ridge he seized an opportunity for spectacular heroism such as is rare with modern methods of warfare where comparatively little hand to hand fighting occurs. The details are not known, but the English paper stated that the boy raised an American flag on a hill in the thick of a charge and held it aloft until both he and the Stars and Stripes fell riddled with bullets. The least we can do for his femory is to place a star for him on our Glendale flag.

UNPLEASANT FEATURES

Judge F. H. Lowe says his work as police magistrate of the city of Glendale is not entirely surrounded with the pleasant things of this life. An instance related by him was that on Sunday he was called to spend several hours in his office hearing a complaint of a wife who said her husband did not give her sufficient support, and asked the judge to aid her in getting the justice she deserves. One of the results of the coming together was that the husband gave the wife $20 cash, probably the first cash the lady had received for many months.

SOMEHTING NEW

What a live newspaper needs is news that is fresh,—news that is news, and not a re-hash of something that has been reprinted and republished many times. When the eye of a reader is scanning the columns of a local newspaper the only news that satisfies to the fullest extent is that that comes upon him as a surprise,—a something about which he has not previously read. Please do not ask the Evening News to repeat announcements.

FOOTHILL CLUB

Miss Ellen Williams was hostess on Friday afternoon at her foothill home to the members of the Foothill club. This club has put away a purely social manner of entertainment during these war times and as usual spent the afternoon in Red Cross work. The needles were busy on hospital garments and knitting needles clicked rapidly to the accompaniment of social chatter. The living and dining rooms were decorated with great golden chrysanthemums which helped to create a homey, pleasant atmosphere. Refreshments were delicious and were in keeping with the season. The club voted to donate $10 to local charity work.

Special guests were Mrs. Menzo Williams, Mrs. Harry Peterson and Miss Nellie Williams. Mrs. Crawford and Mrs. Tabor were received as new members of the club.

GUESTS AT PALM VILLA

Mr. and Mrs. Joel H. Smith and two sons, Joel Jr. and Leslie, and Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Rasmussen, motored down from Selma Friday and were week end guests of Mrs. D. H. Imler at Palm Villa. Eugene Imler and Samuel Rasmussen of Throop college also spent the week end holidays at Palm Villa and the party enjoyed several motor trips, going to Redlands Saturday for the football game.

Sidney Simon, who owns the Glendale Times agency, enlisted as an artillery man about ten days ago, and is now stationed at Camp Kearney. G. A. Pfaff, who formerly owned the Times agency in this city and who had for the past year been residing in Pasadena, has returned to Glendale and will manage the agency in the absence of Mr. Simon.

SAILOR BOY HOME

CHARLES SHROPSHIRE IS UNEXPECTED WEEK END GUEST OF HIS MOTHER HERE

Mrs. J. T. Shropshire and her daughters, 445 Everett street, were very happily surprised Saturday when their son and brother, Charles T. Shropshire, who is in the United States navy, appeared to spend the week end at his home. Mr. Shropshire had just returned from Honolulu and as his vessel was under sealed orders his family did not know of his whereabouts. He had some very interesting experiences to tell of the trip to the Hawaiian Islands. S. T. Kinkaid of Alaska, Mrs. Shropshire's brother, who is spending the winter at Sunland, also visited her over the week end. He had not seen Charles since he was a child of five. The reunion was a very happy one.

A $100,000,000 ASSET

At times the citizens of Glendale become despondent and think we as a city do not compare favorably with other cities. Geo. A. Dawson of Pasadena remarked in the course of his address at the Masonic Temple last Thursday that Pasadena would give millions of dollars if they could move Brand boulevard over to their city to take the place of Colorado street that passes through the business section of their city. They want wide business streets and it is too late to get them now. May we not get some comfort out of having something that is common property that is worth several million dollars.

DEATH OF MRS. ACKERLY

Mrs. Carmen C. Ackerly, wife of William Ackerly of Burbank, passed away at the Pacific hospital in Los Angeles Saturday at the age of 46 years. She was a native of Scotland and had been living in Burbank for the past seventeen years. Besides her husband she is survived by six sons and one daughter. Her son Alfred came down from Camp Lewis for the funeral and will return immediately after.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the chapel of the Scovern-Letton-Frey company.

DEATH OF MR. ELLENWOOD

Funeral services for William Henry Ellenwood of Eagle Rock will be held on Wednesday at 2:30 at the Scovern-Letton-Frey undertaking chapel in Tropico. Mr. Ellenwood had lived in Eagle Rock for 17 years. At one time he owned 35 acres in the heart of the present city of Eagle Rock where some of the finest residences of that suburb now stand. He was a native of Illinois, born May 20, 1840, and reared a family of sixteen children. He leaves to mourn his death seven daughters: Mrs. A. B. Scofield, Tropico, Cal.; Mrs. C. E. Newham, Eagle Rock; Miss Virginia Ellenwood, Los Angeles; Mrs. Mary Powell, of Arkansas; Mrs. Blanche Johnston, of Montana; Mrs. Lucy Hathaway, Indiana; Mrs. Olive Patton, Iowa; and four sons: William Ellenwood, Montana; Elmer Ellenwood, Nebraska; Bennett Ellenwood, Wyoming, and Leonard Ellenwood, of Kansas City, Mo.

DEATH OF MRS. DIXON

Mrs. Lucy Clark Dixon, aged 83 years, died Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Bardsley at her ranch home in North Glendale. Mrs. Dixon had been ill but ten days prior to her death although she had been an invalid for a number of years as a result of a paralytic stroke.

The deceased was born in Ohio, her parents being among the earliest pioneers in that state. Later they moved to Wisconsin where she was married. After the death of her husband she came West 27 years ago and had lived with Mrs. Bardsley since that time. Besides Mrs. Bardsley she leaves a son, Walter C. Clark of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Dixon was keenly intelligent to the last. She was greatly interested in war relief work, her grandson by marriage, Lieut. J. E. Rockhold of Co. C, California Engineers, and his son, Howard Rockhold, her great-grandson, being now in France. Although her hands were crippled, since July 22 she had knit two long mufflers and 11 pairs of socks. Two pairs of socks unfinished are lying in her work-basket.

An interesting item in connection with the life of this aged lady is the fact that her husband and his five brothers were in the civil war and she had six brothers fighting for the Union at the same time.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 10 a. m. at the Jewel City undertaking parlors. Cremation at Forest Lawn.

AMERICAN WOMEN FIGHT ARMY GROUCH IN FRANCE

By GEORGE MARTIN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19. — The new Grouch Exterminators established behind the French front by American women under the direction of Mrs. Wm. K. Vanderbilt are a grand success, cables to the Red Cross said today.

The great Army Grouch was one of the worst diseases France had to contend with until America entered the war. It began with the soldiers in the trenches. They carried it home with them on leave, and it threatened to become a national affair.

That doesn't mean that the poilus were discouraged and ready to quit the war against Germany. It means simply that—

Well, you just choose some nice, cold, rainy batch of weather, go off forty miles from nowhere in it, pick you out a good, miserable mudhole, climb in, stay there two weeks and have somebody shoot guns at you. At the end of that time climb out and walk back that forty miles from nowhere, without food, without a chance to wash or change clothes, keep under a heavy rain and good stiff shellfire most of the way and see if you land home as fair as a lily and as sweet as a rose.

That's the kind of experience that engendered the great Army Grouch in France. It was shattering French morale, not only among the soldiers but among their wives and children at home, to whom they communicated it.

So the American women established Grouch Exterminators on the way from forty miles from nowhere, in France. They call them canteens, but really they're Grouch Exterminators. And this is what today's cable said about them:

"The first of the line of Red Cross canteens, for French troops traveling on leave, has just been opened.

"An average of 2000 men daily have been given an opportunity of obtaining proper hot meals and a comfortable place for eating and recreation while awaiting change of trains. Arrangements for announcing the departure of trains has enabled between 300 and 400 men to catch a few hours of much needed rest in comfortable, clean quarters, without fear of oversleeping. Such quarters are provided for 600 men. Showers and wash basins are also provided. The pleasure and appreciation of all the men who pass through is most gratifying.

"Strangely enough the first visitors were a troop of Chasseurs who had been instructing our American troops, and on the same evening a large number of American engineers, leaving by a train at one o'clock in the morning, were given a warm welcome and send-off by our workers.

"Personnel consists of eighteen women who serve day and night. Soup, bread, meat, vegetables, salads, cheese, eggs, coffee, chocolate and tea gives an idea of the variety of menu served, and an additional store offers canned goods, chocolate, fruit and tobacco for men to take for consumption on the train, as well as postcards and other small materials.

"To see men comfortably swapping stories over a cup of coffee, struggling over a game or a puzzle, or chatting over the counter with our workers, convinces us that our first effort to divert the thoughts of the men from the excitement and horrors of the trenches into quiet and relaxing channels has been successful."

This is the first of a series of canteens being constructed behind the firing lines for American and French troops by the American Red Cross. In addition to building rest stations along the railways, traveling canteens are planned for every corps in the French and American armies.

Nearly one hundred American women have already gone to France as volunteers in this service. More will be accepted as needed. In addition many American women living in France have worked in this service.

A 14-pound Christmas box for each member of the forest service from California in France with the 10th engineers, the lumberjack and forestry regiment, was shipped today from the San Francisco office of the forest service. Each box contains candy, tobacco, cigarettes, toilet articles, raisins and dates, a pipe, deck of playing cards, a book, and a waterproof match safe. These boxes are being sent by former associates of the men in the forest service.

LESS EXPENSIVE

"Edith says she would rather dance than eat."

"Well, she'll find plenty of men who would rather sign a dance program than a dinner check."

My love hath in it a bond,
Whereof the world takes note.

Aluminum Roaster

Poultry and meat roasted in the "Wear-Ever" Roaster retain their juicy and nutritious sweetness which is lost if exposed to the dry heat of an open pan in the oven, or to the uneven heat of an ordinary roaster.

"Wear-Ever" aluminum spreads heat rapidly. Therefore the "Wear-Ever" Roaster heats on all sides—even on the part farthest from the oven burner. The roast or turkey is cooked to tenderness all through, and then can be finished to a golden brown by removing the cover a few minutes before taking from the oven. The Roaster may also be used on top of the stove over one burner.

PUSH BOTTOM SHIPS NO LONGER A DREAM

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Britain is becoming very much interested in the electrically propelled ship, which was first developed on a large scale by the United States navy.

The editor of the "Electric Times" in a recent interview said:

"The electric ship is no longer a dream but a reality and I should not be surprised to find, within a few years of the close of the war, every new vessel of any size driven, steered, stopped, reversed or turned, merely by pressing a series of buttons on the bridge.

"British shipbuilders now have their eyes on the possibilities of the electric drive for big liners and merchant ships and it is hardly to be questioned that our admirality is less alive than the United States navy department to the superior merits of the system."

PERFECTLY RIDICULOUS

"It's too bad that you broke your doll," commented the caller.

"This doll is not broken," corrected the child gravely.

"Oh, isn't it? I thought that was the doll that used to cry 'mamma!' when it was squeezed."

"This is the same doll. But you must remember that was several years ago. She is much older now. You don't expect a grown-up young lady to cry 'mamma!' when she is squeezed, do you?"

The caller had to acknowledge that whatever she expected, it probably wouldn't take place.

To purchase a "Wear-Ever" roaster at Bosserman's does not mean an additional expenditure of money, but it does mean a saving of money as is explained in the advertisement on page two of this issue.

Gilbert A. Cowan, who for six months has been reporting on the Morning Echo at Bakersfield, Cal., spent Sunday in Glendale at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Cowan, 114 Orange street.

BIG Y. M. C. A. MEETING

At the Methodist church last night a very large audience listened to the pleas of a number of speakers in behalf of the Y. M. C. A. war work. J. E. Sprunger was the principal speaker of the evening, telling of his work in German prison camps prior to the entry of the United States into the war. Other speakers were Sergeant Sadler, W. D. McRae, Dr. E. H. Willisford. The pastors of the various churches participating in the service also took part. The audience responded with an offering of $1502.70 for the Y. M. C. A. fund, bringing the total amount subscribed to $3212.70. The ten teams will canvass the city tomorrow in an effort to reach the $4000 mark.

BAZAAR AND DINNER

The ladies of the Christian church are making final preparations for their big annual bazaar which is to be held Wednesday of this week at the church bungalow, Colorado and Louise. There will be all kinds of fancy things for sale, also candy, aprons, comforts and rugs. The ladies will serve their delicious cafeteria dinners both at noon and in the evening. Remember the date, November 21, and patronize the ladies.

The man with the drink habit is always ready to preach temperance that does not interfere with the sale of the stuff.

MILLION DOLLAR MEETING

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church are planning for a novel celebration of their annual praise meeting.

Next Tuesday, November 20, the society will meet in the church at 4 o'clock, instead of 2 o'clock the usual time. The program for this meeting will be in charge of Mesdames McCoy and Sinclair. Subject, "The Philippines and Mormons."

Supper at 6 to 6:30 to which the gentlemen are invited.

At 7:30 a popular meeting of more than uesual interest will be held in the auditorium of the church to which the public is invited.

Mesdames T. W. Preston, R. W. Meeker, L. Z. Hesse and D. Campbell will appear as witnesses for the following respective countries: America (or the United States), Africa, China, and India, each pleading for their country, endeavoring to show in ten minutes a need sufficient to obtain the largest apportionment from the five gentlemen who will act as judges, and decide according to the evidence heard how one million could be divided.

DOLLS FOR RED CROSS BAZAAR

Who will give a dressed doll for the Red Cross bazaar? Who will give an undressed doll? What lady will search through their bit boxes for little odds and ends of muslin, silks, laces, etc., which could be utilized in making dolls' clothes? What ladies will attend a sewing bee at which doll's clothes can be made?

Will the Glendale mothers and fathers please refrain from buying dolls as Christmas gifts for their children until after the Red Cross bazaar? Dolls will be sold at unusually reasonable prices, so please wait until the second week in December for the bazaar.

Any lady who can donate either dolls or clothes or a little time are asked to communicate with Mrs. Johanna Edwards or Mrs. Nanno Woods, same phone, Glendale 394, or Mrs. G. D. Roach, 542-J.

LUCIFER TO HIS SON

Oh, William Hohenzollern,
You greatest DEVIL, Bill,
You're the grandest son I've sired
Or ever, ever will.

When you sank the Lusitania,
You notified the world,
Against LIBERTY, my legions,
I, Lucifer, had hurled.

You made, with poison gasses,
In battles round Verdun,
The coward allies reckon,
They'd be in Hades soon.

In the trenches down in Flanders
You let them known your sire,
From the depths of HELL had sent you,
His choicest liquid fire.

Hear the outraged maids of Belgium,
In anguished accents tell,
The very name of Germany,
Is synonymous with HELL.

Oh, William Hohenzollern,
You've done almighty well,
Convincing countless millions
That you're CROWN PRINCE OF HELL.

HELPING TO WIN THE WAR

By GEORGE ADE

While the war is on, the active work in support of the boys at the front will be shouldered cheerfully by men and women a little too old for acrobatic service but not yet frosted at the temples.

They will supply part of the money and most of the "pep" needed to supply and encourage a huge army in the field.

It is for them to realize that we have passed the period of doubting and question-answering.

We have come to the days when hustling must supplant conversation.

It was all right six months ago to spare an hour a day in trying to convince someone with a vacant eye and a dark mind that we were really justified in accepting the insolent challenge thrown at us by Germany.

You are to be forgiven if, even three months ago, you spent valuable time trying to convince a sluggish minority that:

1st—Government bonds are a safe investment.

2nd—Pro-German propaganda are to be hit in the head.

3rd—The allies are to be trusted.

4th—The Red Cross is above suspicion and does not obtain either money or knitted goods under false pretenses.

5th—All taxes which have been levied are justified by extraordinary and unprecedented conditions.

6th—This is not a rich man's war; it was not precipitated by any Wall Street influence; it was not concerned over private investments; it is not a grand benefit for munition makers.

7th—Fair promises have no value when they are made by a criminal who finds himself backed into a corner.

8th—The men in our training camps and aboard transports and stationed somewhere in France are being safeguarded as American soldiers never before were looked after, as regards wholesome food, proper sanitation, prevention of disease and moral guidance.

Why enumerate further?

Abe Martin met a feller down in Brown county that had never heard of Tony Pastor, and we have a taxpayer in our township who thinks the world is flat, and you can find cabaret performers in New York City who don't believe there is such a place as Iowa, and clairvoyants still find customers, and you can name people who will consult a patent-medicine "ad" in preference to a doctor, and old Jethro Tilford, over in Shelby township, carries a dried-up potato to keep off the rheumatism.

In every community you will find a contrary-minded sediment of the human race—people who keep themselves somewhat in evidence by noisily denying facts which are self-evident to all their neighbors who happen to be in the full enjoyment of sanity.

They are somewhat like frogs, i. e. they made an awful noise in proportion to their number.

Now, if you will take the trouble to check up, in your immediate neighborhood, the people who, from the beginning of the war have been full of doubts and questions and false alarms you will find that they are few in number and of precious little importance, except as atmospheric disturbances.

Also, did it ever occur to you:

That the man who bought most liberally of the government bonds never questioned the safety of his security?

That the woman who was knitting the most socks and sweaters never believed the silly stories about the Red Cross being a crooked institution?

That the soldier boy, about to board a transport and join his comrades in France and Great Britain never was known to doubt the sincerity of the men with whom he was to join soldiers?

No, indeed!

All the wails and misgivings and fish stories are put into circulation by a few picayune outsiders, who were just built to be obstructionists and somehow can't help it.

They are in a class with the Tories who feasted the aristocratic British officers while Washington's army was starving at Valley Forge.

They are a hold-over of the Vallandingham clan, that reviled Lincoln and gave an underhanded, copperhead support to the cause of slavery, even after it was doomed.

They are the kind of people who oppose public improvements, will not buy tickets for the Chautauqua, criticize the minister if he smiles in public, and attach the presumption of guilt to any woman attacked by scandal.

They are small-bores, he two-by-fours, the gnats, the sand flies, the ticks—put on earth to teach people the quality of patience.

The time has come to ignore them.

If we cannot lock them up for safe keeping, at least we can shut them out from our daily programme and go ahead with the important work laid out for us.

This is no time to waste precious hours and vocal energy in trying to prove that two and two make four, and water is wet, and the sun sets in the west, and the mad dog of Prussia must be muzzled.

Don't try to convince the miniature La Follettes, because they don't wish to be convinced. They derive a bilious comfort from being different. They have learned that no cloud has a silver lining. It is festooned on the interior with crepe.

If all the optimists along your street should arise some morning into a world bedecked with dew-sparkles and exclaim in unison, "What a beautiful sunshiny day,"—then some two-legged crab would emerge from behind a lilac bush and say, "Yes, but I think it'll rain before night."

If you find a banana skin on the threshold of patriotic opportunity kick it aside and don't permit yourself to become fussed.

The stalwart men and women of middle age are to keep the home fires burning during the supreme ordeal now at hand.

They are to raise the crops, speed the factories, collect the taxes, organize the home guards, conserve the wheat and meat and sugar, back up the Red Cross, peddle the Liberty Loan bonds, write the letters, pack the comfort kits, and stand by for orders, at all times.

If a busy worker feels some one tugging at his coat tail, the thing to do is to kick straight back and kick hard but don't waste time in looking around.

By the way, here is an important tip for every man past thirty. Don't tell around that you would be keen to enlist if you were just a little younger.

Some of the men just under thirty will have their doubts and even those who believe you will not find entertainment in your conversation.

Whenever you are annoyed by a grouchy man remember that it hurts him more than it does you.

Never look backward unless you are going that way.

A WORD OF CAUTION

—If you move insured property (such as household goods) to another house, be sure to notify the agent of the insurance company of such change and have an endorsement put on your policy allowing such change of location. Otherwise your insurance is void.

A Good Argument

—In favor of a Savings Account is: that it is exempt from State, County and local taxation.

—While there are many forms of investment that seemingly pay a high rate of interest, there are few that are really more desirable when you consider the absolute safety of a Savings Account—its convenience and the fact that the 4 per cent. interest you reecive semi-annually represents a strictly NET income.

Salyer Sells One End of a Piano AND Gives the Other End Away

SALE BEGINS Saturday, Morning, Nov. 24

KIND OF PIANOS OFFERED

This is not a job lot of doubtful or unknown makes. On the contrary, we have such grand old leaders as Shoninger, Pease, Hobart, M. Cable, Emerson, Needham and others, the grade and character of which no honest man will question. They are all good reliable makes and yet during this sale their castors fairly rattle on bed-rock prices.

SELLS ONLY ONE END

During these Specials Salyer seems possessed with the one idea, SELL, SELL, SELL.

At such a time you come into the store, pick out your piano, negotiate for one end of it and he just about gives you the other end. And why? Well, it makes plenty of deals such as they are. It delivers pianos all around Glendale, Tropico, Eagle Rock, Burbank, and some even to city customers.

MORE WE SELL MORE WE MAY

Let two or three pianos a day go out from any store, and it sets people talking and guessing. Such stunts really advertise a house as nothing else can and counts for a great deal in the long run. It makes a host of friends and stirs up new prospects. Hence another Piano Drive and—it's on.

SAVES YOU A FINE CHUNK

You are going to save a fine, big chunk on any piano. Also on Player, Grand or second hand instrument. If that is what you want, then grab your check book and get around quick. During this sale it is impossible to go wrong. Besides we give three months, sometimes more full exchange privilege. During this sale a little child can lay its tiny hand on any piano and find—a BARGAIN.

A FEW SAMPLE BUYS

There is a fairly strong inquiry for good used pianos. We quote a few and equally good bargains run through all the new stock.

COME SATURDAY MORNING

Takes too long to read descriptive so come along and see what piano you'd like and don't take it too easy for the very one you would like best may slip away. Come Saturday morning, the 24th.

9 OUT OF EVERY 10 PIANOS HAVE MOTHS!

BUT 9 OUT OF EVERY 10 OWNERS THINK THEY HAVE ESCAPED The Ravages of Moths

This is the common mistake made by so many. Why not really know? FIND OUT. Better yet. Let us find out for you FREE.

If you have no moths, so much the better, but if your piano is over-run and you are determined to have the breeding bed of felt-eaters cleaned out, we can put you in touch with the right man, who can do the work right and at the right price.

He will be the right man because he specializes in this work, tuners do not, and we find pianos that have been tuned year after year without even a warning of this necessary work.

The work will be done right, use especially equipped vacuum suction apparatus, special brushes, moth powders, etc., the piano will be cleaned from top to bottom, the necessary punchings replaced, regulation and levelling and looseness removed from the keys, also the rust removed from the vibratory part of the strings. The work is guaranteed.

The price will be right. For single jobs others charge $7.50, but he will secure a sufficient number of orders for this work, so you can have the club rate price of $3.90.

DELAY IS OFTEN EXPENSIVE

Remember moths live generations in a short time and will never abandon the piano, as long as there is a piece of felt left. Why should they? They will find no finer felts anywhere and besides there is an animal oil in piano felts that fatten and increases their number beyond count. The time comes when they can do as much damages in one day as they could previously in a month. Don't wait until you hear the clicking, rattling noises, uneven touch and uneven tone. Don't wait until the next tuning to find out. LET US EXAMINE IT FREE OF CHARGE.

The destructive pests are not only the flying moth. There are the wingless varieties; the buffalo bugs, the silver moth, slickers, etc. Look out! The breeding place in the piano will be the source that will keep you constantly fighting them to keep from destroying your carpets, furs, clothing, to say nothing of a hundred dollars' worth of piano hammers, felts, bushings, etc.

It is only a trifling cost to have your piano thoroughly cleaned and we know how to stop them so they will stay stopped for a good while. Protect your piano.—Phone Black 116 or Glendale 1444-J.
